

Selection Criteria
Graded from 1-5 with comments.

Strength of food business idea
- Well-formed business concept
- Scalable and saleable food product
- Have the skills needed to be develop and execute business idea
Understanding of program and ability to commit to time and effort required
- Confident in what is required after information session
- Capacity to give amount of time and effort needed to make it through the classes (not just enthusiasm)
Possible reach of business
- Will it benefit more than the participants themselves i.e. bring children into business / involve other women, migrants or people experiencing employment disadvantage?
- Can the business collaborate with existing business groups or retailers to assist business sustainability and viability in the early stage?
Preferred
Food Safety Supervisor Certificate
ABN